MARKET COMMENTARY

Following a strong end to 2023 global markets delivered mixed performances for January. Over the month, the DJIA, S&P 500, NASDAQ and Euro STOXX 50 all experienced positive returns of 1.3%, 1.7%, 1.0% and 3.0%, respectively and measured in their local currencies. The S&P 500 reached all-time highs as positive economic data and receding inflation supported investor optimism. In contrast, the FTSE 100 posted a negative return of -1.3% due to weaker economic data. In fixed income markets, yields on US, UK and German 10-year bonds rose by 3.3, 25.7, and 14.2 basis points, respectively, and mainly driven by central banks striking a less dovish tone in respect of rate cuts expected in 2024. Brent Crude oil was up 5.4% over the month as the ongoing conflict in the Middle East caused disruptions in the Suez Canal. The pound fell by 0.1% against the US dollar and rose by 1.6% against the euro.

Key Contributors to Return

Flutter Entertainment's shares increased by 16.8% after the company reported continued iGaming market share gains in the US and completed its listing on the NYSE. Verizon Communications' shares increased by 14.7% after reporting higher than expected postpaid phone net additions and revenue for its fourth quarter.

Key Detractors from Return

AIA Group's shares declined by 10.2% following Hong Kong and Chinese listed shares traded lower after Chinese state support had been unable to lift the seemingly negative sentiment in these markets. Bayer AG's shares declined by 15.4% after another jury verdict awarded over $2.2bn in compensation to a former user of a glyphosate-based herbicide manufactured by Bayer AG's subsidiary Monsanto.
