Market Commentary

Global equity markets continued their rebound in June as economies started to re-open. Optimism outweighed concerns about the recovery of the global economy and the worsening of coronavirus cases. The S&P 500, FTSE 100 and Euro STOXX were all up 2.0%, 1.7%, 6.5% respectively. Copper was up 11.9% over the month, driven by supply disruptions in Chile and a resurgence in Chinese demand due to the easing of lockdown restrictions. The Bank of England increased its quantitative easing programme by a further £100 billion and the ECB expanded its Pandemic Emergency Purchase Program (PEPP) by €600 billion, helping to keep government and corporate borrowing costs low and provide liquidity. The yields for UK and German 10-year bonds both decreased by 1 basis point, while the yield on US 10-year bonds was flat. The pound was up 0.5% against the US dollar and down 0.7% against the euro.
