Market Commentary

Global equity markets performed poorly in September, with the majority generating a negative return over the month. The S&P 500, FTSE 100 and Euro STOXX 50 were down 3.8%, 1.5% and 2.3% respectively. September saw the resurgence of Covid-19 cases across the developed world, as localised lockdowns were enforced across the UK and Europe. In the US, the presidential race began to build momentum with some polls showing Trump to be gaining ground in key swing states, such as Florida. In the UK, Rishi Sunak delivered a statement on the Winter Economy Plan which promised yet more fiscal stimulus and Brexit negotiations plodded along with little progress. The pound was down 1.6% against the euro and down 3.4% against the US dollar. The yield on US, UK and German 10-year bonds nudged lower by 2, 8 and 13 basis points respectively. Brent crude oil fell 8.2% over the month due to mounting fears that a second wave would stall the global economy.
