

Given the current economic environment and the dramatic changes seen in interest rates (not least due to the recent UK mini budget) we thought it worthwhile to share some thoughts from the Credo Fixed Income team and our view on the current investment opportunity.

Click here for details.

By way of background, the Credo Fixed Income team focus on delivering bespoke corporate bond portfolios, predominately in Sterling and US Dollars for our Financial Intermediaries and Private Clients across various risk spectrums; from outperforming cash at the bank to generating a higher yield without taking undue risk.